

Complete the verbs with the correct ending if they require any:

1. Sam miss (misses) his friends so much that is why they call (call) him every day.
2. Lucy and Oscar learn^{learn}(-) English with big pleasure because they like(-) how it sound (sounds).
3. I teach (teach) English at public school but sometimes I give (give) private lessons as well.
4. Sandra never carry (carries) heavy bags because her back hurt (hurts).
5. My father and me fix (fix) cars that is why we want (want) to open our own saloon.
6. My cat sleep (sleeps) all day but it wake (wakes) up quickly when smelling food.
7. Her brother always wash (washes) dishes after meals because he like (likes) to help.
8. Jennifer care (cares) a lot about her parents so she always ask (asks) how they are doing.
9. The sun rise (rises) on the east so it shine (shines) into my window every morning.

Put the sentences into negative and interrogative forms:

1. Sebastian always carries a lunchbox to school.
Sebastian doesn't always carries a lunchbox to school. Does Sebastian always carry a lunchbox to school?

2. My teacher asks me to go to the blackboard very often.
My teacher doesn't ask me to go to the blackboard very often. Does my teacher ask me to go to the blackboard very often?

3. His dog always barks at strangers.
His dog doesn't always bark at strangers. Does his dog always bark at strangers?

4. Her father sometimes stays at work overnight.
Her father sometimes doesn't stay at work overnight. Does her father sometimes stay at work overnight?

5. My lessons usually last for 2 hours.

My lessons don't usually last for 2 hours. Do my lessons usually last for 2 hours?

6. His brother drives his car very fast.

His brother doesn't drive his car very fast. Does his brother drive his car very fast?

7. Anthony cooks dinner for his family every Sunday.

Anthony doesn't cook dinner for his family every Sunday. Does Anthony cook dinner for his family every Sunday?

8. Brian reads 5 books a month.

Brian doesn't read 5 books a month. Does Brian read 5 books a month?

9. She always watches her favorite TV program in the evening.

She doesn't always watch her favorite TV program in the evening. Does she always watch her favorite TV program in the evening?

10. The bartender always mixes drinks at the bar.

The bartender doesn't always mix drinks at the bar. Does the bartender always mix drinks at the bar?

11. Natasha travels to Turkey every summer.

Natasha doesn't travel to Turkey every summer. Does Natasha travel to Turkey every summer?

12. My telephone rings very loud.

My telephone doesn't ring very loud. Does my telephone ring very loud?

Choose the appropriate verbs from the box below to complete the text:

1. Sleep 2. Changes 3. Goes 4. Irons 5. Likes 6. Explores 7. Takes 8. Gets 9. Comes

10. Speaks 11. Works 12. Wears 13. Meets 14. Travels 15. Looks

Megan (works) as a flight attendant. She (travels) a lot by plane and she (likes) to see new countries. She always (takes) a big bag with her. And she never (comes) late for work. She (speaks) many foreign languages and (goes) to English school apart from work. She (wears) a special uniform and she always (irons) it by herself before work. She (looks) very nice in it so she (gets) a lot of compliments. She doesn't always (sleep) well because she (changes) time zones as she travels. They call it a jet lag. But anyway she likes her job because she (meets) new people and (explores) new places.