

Read the sentences and write at the end of each if the predicate is a stative or a dynamic verb:

1. Me and Jennifer were looking for a place to stay for a week. Dynamic
2. I am wearing a new suit for a business meeting. Dynamic
3. All members of my family get up early every day. Dynamic
4. Fruits contain vitamins and useful elements. Stative
5. Why do you always disagree with me? Stative
6. My brother has studied at university for 3 years. Dynamic
7. The color of a car doesn't matter to me. Stative

Red the sentences and put the verbs into the correct form according to the context. into negative and interrogative forms:

1. I am (try) to call a doctor because my ear hurts (hurt).
2. My friend thinks (think) I look (look) nice in this shirt.

3. My sister is booking(book) a ticket for tomorrow's show which starts (start) at 7.00pm.
4. She is cooking(cook) a chicken now so it smells (smell) very tasty.
5. Young men are standing (stand) at the club entrance, the security doesn't let (not/let) them in.
6. Me and friends are getting (get) ready for an exhibition which takes (take) place in downtown on Friday.
7. The emergency alarm is ringing (ring) loud so all people are running (run) away.

Read the text and write down the verbs accordingly in the tablet below:

Me and my sister always disagree when it comes to cooking. I put a lot of salt while she prefers unsalted food. She loves deep fried potato but I boil it instead. I think we need to care about what we eat. But I totally agree we need to spoil ourselves every now and then by trying tasty things. Especially when they smell very nice and you lose control. I believe everyone has such weakness.

Stative	Dynamic
Disagree Prefer Loves Care Agree Smell Believe Has	Put Comes Boil Eat Spoil Trying Losing