

Put the verbs into the correct form:

1. My father met (meet) my mom on vacation in 1993 and proposed (propose) to her the same year.
2. Me and Claris went (go) to the cinema yesterday and ate (eat) a lot of popcorn.
3. His brother called (call) me one hour ago and offered (offer) me to take a walk.
4. Tory learned (learn) English when she was (be) a child.
5. The bus arrived (arrive) on time this morning so I got (get) to my destination quickly.
6. Nataly spoke (speak) good German when she studied (study) at university back then.
7. My boss offered (offer) to give me a lift after work today but I refused (refuse).
8. Anastasia finished (finish) her home tasks a few hours ago and headed (head) to dance classes.
9. My arm hurt (hurt) a lot this morning so I put (put) a bandage on it.

Put the sentences into negative and interrogative forms:

3. We spoke a lot to each other during the last meeting.

We didn't speak a lot to each other during the last meeting. Did we speak a lot to each other during the last meeting?

4. Simon finished university 4 years ago.

Simon didn't finish university 4 years ago. Did Simon finish university 4 years ago?

6. His father wanted to have a rest after such a long ride.

His father didn't want to have a rest after such a long ride. Did his father want to have a rest after such a long ride?

7. The train departed at midnight.

The train didn't depart at midnight. Did the train depart at midnight?

8. Cassandra lived in Canada for 7 years.

Cassandra didn't live in Canada for 7 years. Did Cassandra live in Canada for 7 years?

9. My parents came back from a business trip on Friday.

My parents didn't come back from a business trip on Friday. Did my parents come back from a business trip on Friday?

10. Christina received a lot of presents on her last birthday.

Christina didn't receive a lot of presents on her last birthday. Did Christina receive a lot of presents on her last birthday?

11. The pandemic caused a big crisis in the world.

The pandemic didn't cause a big crisis in the world. Did the pandemic cause a big crisis in the world?

12. Her English became better after the trip to the UK.

Her English didn't become better after the trip to the UK. Did her English become better after the trip to the UK?

Choose the appropriate verbs from the box below to complete the text:

1. Spoke 2. Became 3. Found 4. Shared 5. Missed 6. Moved 7. Continued 8. Invited 9. Taught
10. Opened 11. Passed 12. Learnt 13. Decided 14. Studied 15. Finished

Victoria (finished) university three years ago and then she (decided) to become an English teacher. She (learned) a lot of new words and (studied) grammar very eagerly. That's why she (passed) the final exam easily and (found) a nice job. She (shared) her knowledge with big pleasure and her students never (missed) her lessons. She (continued) to work as a teacher and (opened) her own school. She (invited) her friends to join the school and (taught) them 3 times a week. After that Victoria and her friends (moved) to the United States because they all (spoke) good English. The English (15) ^{became} a part of their life.

