

Open the brackets and put the nouns in plural by adding -s, -es to the end of each:

1. I have taken five (picture) of the house.
2. He gave me three welcoming (kiss).
3. Most people know one another in small (town).
4. I have shown her a few (dress) to choose from.
5. Two (fox) have come out of the forest.
6. (Bus) are slower than (plane).
7. You should read some (book) about this subject.
8. There are many (tree) growing in my backyard.
9. Peter doesn't like (dog), he prefers (cat) instead.
10. She doesn't like to wash the (dish) after dinner.

Open the brackets and put the nouns in plural form by adding -s, or changing the ending -y for -ies if required:

1. I presented many (toy) to my younger brother.
2. There are two (way) how we can solve this problem.
3. (Butterfly) are beautiful and do not bite.
4. Mario has lived in four different (city) over the last couple of years.
5. We don't eat (cherry) because we have an allergy.
6. A group of pretty (lady) entered the class.

7. Our (family) don't go on vacation together anymore.
8. There are two famous (library) in my city.
9. It takes many (day) to recover from this disease.
10. My grandfather told me many (story) about his military service.

Transform the nouns into plural form to complete the word combinations:

1. One knee - two _____ .
2. My life - our _____ .
3. One leaf - many _____ .
4. One tomato - one kilo of _____ .
5. One foot - two _____ .
6. One tooth - a mouth full of _____ .
7. One man - a crowd of _____ .
8. One mouse - a family of _____ .
9. One child - a lot of _____ .
10. One sheep - a flock of _____ .