

Put the verbs into the correct form:

1. Guests are coming (come) in a few hours, we are cleaning (clean) the apartment this moment and (order) some food.
2. I don't know how you are sleeping (sleep) now when the music is playing (play) so loud!
3. Drake is painting (paint) a portrait of Lucy, that's why she is sitting (sit) still.
4. Ariana is getting (get) dressed up and is going out (go out) tonight.
5. The teacher is explaining (explain) a new rule, students are listening (listen) to him very attentively and are writing down (write down) remarks.
6. We are buying (buy) some drinks and are heading (head) home right after, Andrew is calling (call) a taxi.
7. Helen is taking (take) a shower for too long so I am hurrying (hurry) her up to leave for the party sooner.
8. The comedian is telling (tell) a funny story that's why all people in the audience are laughing (laugh).
9. His mother is watching (watch) TV while ironing (iron) the clothes for tomorrow's event.

Put the sentences into negative and interrogative forms:

1. The prices are getting lower on the occasion of Black Friday

The prices aren't getting lower on the occasion of Black Friday. Are the prices getting lower on the occasion of Black Friday?

---

2. We are leaving for Greece next Monday.

We aren't leaving for Greece next Monday. Are we leaving for Greece next Monday?

---

3. Her uncle is choosing a nice gift for his niece.

Her uncle isn't choosing a nice gift for his niece. Is her uncle choosing a nice gift for his niece?

---

4. Max is sleeping tight after a hard working day.

Max isn't sleeping tight after a hard working day. Is Max sleeping tight after a hard working day?

---

5. The pilot is waiting for instructions from the operator.

The pilot isn't waiting for instructions from the operator. Is the pilot waiting for instructions from the operator?

---

6. I am talking to my assistant at the moment

I am not talking to my assistant at the moment. Am I talking to my assistant at the moment?

---

7. People are gathering at one place.

People aren't gathering at one place. Are people gathering at one place?

---

8. My cat is trying to catch a mouse.

My cat isn't trying to catch a mouse. Is my cat trying to catch a mouse?

---

9. Sam and Kate are coming home after school.

Sam and Kate aren't coming home after school. Are Sam and Kate coming home after school?

---

10. We are staying at the hotel we booked in advance.

We aren't staying at the hotel we booked in advanced. Are we staying at the hotel we booked in advance?

---

11. Ann is searching for a movie to watch tonight.

Ann isn't searching for a movie to watch tonight. Is Ann searching for a movie to watch tonight?

---

12. I am running home because it's hailing.

I am not running home because it's hailing. Am I running home because it's hailing?

---

Choose the appropriate verbs from the box below to complete the dialogue:

1. Is playing 2. Are missing 3. Are looking 4. Am booking 5. Am putting on 6. Are ready 7. Is performing 8. Am choosing 9. Are not sleeping 10. Are watching 11. Am cooking 12. Is coming 13. Am looking 14. Is asking 15. Are staying

Hello, Sebastian. We (are watching) a cool TV show with lots of snacks. Do you want to come over? -Unfortunately, I can't. I (am looking) after my sister at the moment. She (is playing) computer games while I (am cooking) lunch for us. - Too sad! Because Nathan and Drake (are missing) you so much! Been a while since we met. We (are staying) overnight so you still have time to come. - Thank you, friend. Our mother (is coming) in a couple of hours so I will join you for sure. So I guess we (aren't sleeping) tonight? - Exactly! I (am booking) a table in the night club because our favorite Dj (is performing) there for the first time! I hope your legs (are ready) for some crazy dancing. Drake (is asking) you not to wear sneakers though. There is a special dress code now. - No problem. I (am putting on) my leather shoes then. - Alright. We (are looking) forward to seeing you!